

RAISE YOUR VOICE

[Anna Tabbush]

Raise your voice
And sing together
Music lives, come whatever
Though the storms are sent
To make us bent and break
The songs we sing,
they shall not shake

ONLY WHEN IT'S DARK

[Jake Alexander]

Only, only, only
Only when it's dark enough
Can you see, dark enough
Can you see, the stars
the staaars...

DAHL BADDIES

[Craig McLeish]

Roald Dahl created some of the most evil characters in literature, the Grand High Witch is a nasty piece of work,
but there's also Aunts Sponge and Spiker,
perhaps you remember Boggis, Bunce and Bean,
and the nasty giants from the BFG,
but maybe the worst is Agatha Trunchbull throwing children out the window

HARBOUR

[Anna Tabbush]

When you've crossed the stormy waters, come walk ashore
Bring your sons and bring your daughters, wander no more.

For our door is always open And our hearth is always warm when you need a place to shelter, we're a harbour in the storm.

There'll be time for rest and sleeping, come walk ashore
There'll be space for rest and healing, wander no more.

* For our door...

For in days of lesser fortune, come walk ashore
We may need a door to open, wander no more.

* For our door... (x2)
